Alerting Services - Educational Topics / Issues in September 2009

Nationalistic education / Citizenship education / Civic education

- Understandings and teaching approaches of nationalistic education: the case of Hong Kong / By Yan Wing Leung

- Multiple identities and education for active citizenship / By Ross, Alistair

- Deliberation in national and post-national education / By Roth, Klas

- Use and misuse of affective approach in nationalistic education within the context of civic education / By Yan Wing Leung

- Rethinking hegemony and resistance to political education in Mainland China and Hong Kong / By Fairbrother, Gregory P.

- Civics and citizenship education / By Anderson, Ron; Prior, Warren

- On the development of citizenship education outlook in China / By Zhu, Xiaoman; Feng, Xiujun

- Citizenship, diversity and national identity / By Crick, Bernard

- Whose citizenship education? Hong Kong from a spatial and cultural politics perspective / By Kwan-Choi Tse, Thomas

- Globalisation, knowledge economy and comparative education / By Dale, Roger Building a civic culture post-conflict / By Davies, Lynn

Constructing citizenship: comparing the views of students in Australia, Hong Kong, and the United States / By Kennedy, Kerry J.; Hahn, Carole L.; Wing-On Lee

Citizenship education and national identities in France and England: inclusive or exclusive? / By Osler, Audrey; Starkey, Hugh

Education for national efficiency (Book) / By Tholfsen, Trygve R.

Learning & exploring the concept of citizenship / By Dudgeon, Pam

The butterfly effect: the impact of citizenship education / By Ponder, Jennifer; Lewis-Ferrell, Genell

Citizenship education, policy, and the educationalization of educational research / By Hodgson, Naomi

Enhancing students' responsibility towards society through civic involvement projects / By Cetindamar, Dilek; Hopkins, Tara

Civic attitudes in practice / By Education Update

The shifting sands of civics and citizenship education in Australia: what principles, policies and practices should be enacted in the times ahead? / By Tudball, Libby
Schools of conscience / By Haynes, Charles C.

An ‘action-poor’ human rights education: a critical review of the development of human rights education in the context of civic education in Hong Kong / By Leung, Yan Wing

Student constructions of “Active Citizenship”: what does participation mean to students? / By Kennedy, Kerry J.

Constants and contexts in pupil experience of learning and schooling: comparing learners in England, France and Denmark / By Osborn, Marilyn